North Carolina law allows any individual or registered political action committee to contribute up to $4,000 per election. Corporate contributions and contributions from foreign nationals are prohibited. NC law also requires political action committees to report the name, mailing address, job title or profession, and name of the employer for individuals contributing in excess of $50 in an election. Contributions are not deductible as charitable contributions for federal income tax purposes. This committee cannot accept contributions from lobbyists and are not asking for such. We are providing you with a copy of this information simply to inform you and request that you pass the information along to any interested parties and recommend support where appropriate.
